Legal & Privacy

Countryland Property Management is committed to maintaining your confidence and trust. Your right to privacy and data security is a primary concern. We collect industry standard information to help us provide you with better services as described below.

Use of this site | Personal Information | Non-Personal Information

USE OF THIS SITE

This legal statement and privacy policy are an integral part of our website, which cannot be separated from the general contracting conditions, operations or services.

The use of our website indicates complete acceptance, without exclusion, of the conditions contained in these clauses.

You agree not to deep-link to any part of this website without prior written permission from Countryland Property Management, and not to impose what Countryland Property Management may consider to be an unreasonable or excessive load on the infrastructure of this website. You further agree not to contravene any constraints placed on robot exclusion headers of this website or circumnavigate other measures employed to block or inhibit access to any portion of this website.

PERSONAL INFORMATION:

Personal Data

When you browse the site, we do not collect personal information about you. The only way we can collect any kind of personal information is if you give it to us.

By disclosing your personal information to us using this website or over the telephone, you consent to the collection, storage and processing of your personal information by us as stated in this Legal Statement and Privacy Policy.

We will need to collect information about you to deal with your submitted requests as smoothly as possible. This information may include such details as your name, personal preferences, disabilities, or any special requirements. We do not share your personally identifiable information with third parties under ANY circumstances.

Countryland Property Management guarantees the security and confidentiality of any personal details submitted. Countryland Property Management has implemented technical security measures and appropriate processes to ensure the correct transmission of personal data obtained for the purpose for which they have been submitted, as well as to ensure against unauthorized alteration, loss, treatment or access, in line with current technology and the nature of the data.

Newsletters

Countryland Property Management do not automatically subscribe users to our newsletter. In order to receive this you have the choice to subscribe and be informed by email of news and special offers. If you would like to unsubscribe to our newsletter at any time, you can advise us on the "unsubscribe" option of our website.

Sharing of Information with Third Parties

We do not share your personally identifiable information with third parties under ANY circumstances. If we ever wish to share your personally identifiable information with third parties, we will give you a chance to opt out before we do so.

NON-PERSONAL INFORMATION:

Web Visit

When you visit our web site, our server logs your IP address, the time and duration of your visit, and the time and duration of the pages on our web site that you view. This information is used to generate aggregate statistical data that we use to measure interest in our web pages. We do not tie this information to any personally identifiable information that we collect.

User Surveys

Your participation in surveys is optional. We may ask you for information regarding your experience with our products or services, or to provide demographic information such as age, gender, or areas of interest. We use this information to help us improve our services, plan marketing initiatives, and develop new products that may interest you. We collect this information in a completely anonymous way so that it cannot be tied to any personally identifiable information.

Cookies

Access to Countryland Property Management may involve the use of cookies, although the website can run without the use of cookies. Cookies are small files of information stored on the browser of each user so that the server can recognize certain information that only the server can read. Cookies last for a limited time. No cookies can permit any telephone, email or other identification details to be revealed. Cookies cannot extract any information from the user's hard drive or steal personal information. The only way that a user's private information can form part of a cookie file is if the user personally give this information to the server.

Although cookies help us to optimize your booking process, users who do not wish to receive cookies or wish to be informed of their presence, can configure their browser to that effect.

Links

Neither we, our employees, contractors, agents, and owners are responsible for the privacy policies or content of any websites which may link to Countryland Property Management.

Children's Online Privacy Protection

Neither our web sites nor our products are designed for or directed to children under the age of 13, and we will not intentionally maintain information about anyone under the age of 13.

Copyright
